SCARGO TOWER

On our cover is Scargo Tower set high on a hill in the Town of Dennis on Cape Cod. Built of cement and fieldstone, inside there is a winding staircase which leads to an open balcony. From here on a clear day you can see all over Cape Cod to Provincetown. The day this picture was taken was foggy and the visibility was poor and you couldn't even see the ocean off the beach in Dennis about one mile away. The tower overlooks Scargo Lake (photo below), a pretty spot.

The tower was built by the family of an early settler, Thomas Tobey, in 1902. Parking is provided by the town around the base of the tower. The site overlooks the burial grounds of the Nobscusset tribe of Indians. An Indian legend concerns the origin of Scargo Lake. A spoiled Princess named Scargo was given two fish in a hollowed pumpkin. As the fish grew too large for the pumpkin, her father, to satisfy his sullen daughter, sent his strongest brave to shoot two arrows; one he shot north to south and Park, met with Selectmen to ask the Board's support for the article he has placed in the town warrant for a change in the zoning by-law as it pertains to density requirements at the park.

After his explanation on the proposed change and reasons for its change, Selectmen agreed to support Folino's article at the May 4th annual Town Meeting. The article was placed by petition signed by 18 registered voters which included several business operators in the park and their employees.

The article reads: "To see if the Town will vote to amend the Zoning By-Law by deleting the second sentence in Section VI and substituting the following: 'no structure or structures shall cover more than 50 percent of the lot'."

Mr. Folino explained the change would go from 25 percent to 50 percent of the actual building on a lot at the park. This would put in perspective the original percentage of 25 percent as laid out by the early members of the Industrial Park Committee and bring the 50 percent up to that in other surrounding towns.

"It makes no sense," Folino said, "to have a 10.7 acre lot such as Universal and be limited to build on only 3.7 acres." He stressed he has no personal axe to grind. "It is just that if it is going to be called an Industrial Park it should be treated like one, even though it is a private park and not a town-owned one." He added there is no problem with the set-back requirements as they now stand.

Folino further said the change, if voted, would create no detrimental impact on the town. In fact, he said, theoretically, if the buildings can be larger, the town will collect more taxes, as well as making a more efficient use of the property. The park employs 500 at present and this could be increased with expansion allowed.

In other business, Selectmen:

the only road that received "an acceptable condition notice" from Highway Surveyor Manuel R. Nunes following his personal inspection. Chairman DeCosta noted the highway surveyor's acceptance is not a requisite for approval, but is just a recommendation. There are 19 homes on Crooks Way.

Oaklawn Avenue, off Ocean View Avenue in the Brandt Beach section, has nine homes and there were 14 residents present at the hearing. Selectmen urged the residents to be sure to attend the town meeting to speak up for voter acceptance.

Stoney Hill Road, with eight homes, and Pinewood Way, with 10 homes, are both off Acushnet Road. Twelve residents were present for both roads. Attorney James Fogarty of New Bedford was also present representing the homeowners, but made no specific comment.

Selectman Hubbard commented to each group of residents that he is a strong believer in accepting roads as soon as possible. He estimated there are 30 roads in need of acceptance now, and he felt the town should adopt a schedule to take a few roads at a time on a regular basis, as finances allow, and not keep homeowners waiting. He acknowledged the poor condition of most of the roads, but blamed the builders, saying, "They were allowed to get away with more than they should have in keeping them up to grade."

town warrant for a new police station. Selectmen are recomending the proposal be presented as a debt exclusion rather than as a straight override. In a debt exclusion, the town gets the money right away, then takes 10 years to pay off the loan with annual payments budgeted each year.

Chief Moran will meet with the Finance Committee to coordinate the building costs and loan cost figures for the article. Selectmen noted they need definite figures that they can feel comfortable with at town meeting.

ANNOUNCED TOWN REPORTS are ready - at least as ready as they will ever be - and have been accepted "as is". Selectmen explained there isn't time to have them reprinted. However, they stressed they are not happy with the reports and are in the process of having town counsel arbitrate a new figure with the printer, Hi-Tech Graphics. The company offered a $250 reduction if they are accepted "as is", but with some pages upside down, some pages light and some dark and the photos of such poor quality, Selectmen feel there should be much more of a reduction from the $4,000 contract price. The reports may be picked up at Town Hall during business hours.

MET WITH Sylvia Fales, new chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals, and Building Inspector David Crook to hear their recommendations for clerical services for the two departments. At the present time Melanie Mills is serving both the Appeals Board and Building Inspector on a part-time basis, as well as functioning as a clerk in the Town Clerk's office. A better distribution of her time is needed to handle all the Appeals Board workload. The two department heads are seeking to have the clerk work only for them.

Previously, Town Clerk Lois Ennis was keeping records for the Building Inspector and Appeals Board. When she became too busy, the Town Clerk's clerk helped the Appeals Board. This system sometimes took two to three months for a decision to have the paper work completed. The Building Inspector is asking for nine hours a week of the clerk's time, with the Appeals Board using the balance of 16 hours, for a total of 25 hours per week. They recommended a salary of $6.15 per hour.

Mrs. Fales and Mr. Crook agreed the clerk will also be needed from about 7 to 11 p.m., possibly later, to take notes at the two Appeals Board's hearings each month. This could be worked out either with compensation time or paid with overtime. The two department heads agreed the clerk will need a tape recorder (she is presently using her own), a typewriter, and a word processor, for a total of $950. for

The Board agreed the concept is good but the time should be made fair and recommends Crook and Mrs. Fales work out a time schedule around the 25 hours total for the week. If Selectmen approve it next week, the recommendations will go to the Personnel Board. Selectman Hubbard said the Personnel Board is doing a good job; "we should let them set the salary".

ACCEPTED WITH REGRET the resignation of Peter B. Hodges from the Finance Committee, effective May 5th. Hodges cited pressure of his business and his teaching duties at SMU. He expressed an interest in being involved in town government at some future time, if his workload permits. (This makes two who have resigned from the Finance Committee, as Michael O'Brien also resigned recently.)

APPROVED on a 2 to 1 vote to grant the request of Fire Chief Donald Wood to be given a three-year appointment rather than the present annual appointment as Fire Chief.

Chairman DeCosta and Selectman Frank Suzan voted in favor of the change; Selectman Hubbard opposed the change. Hubbard explained his reasons, saying a three-year appointment could present a problem in the future with a new chief

HEARD A REPORT from Selectman Hubbard on the recent meeting at ORR High School on Chapter 91 Waterways Licensing. He said the report as it now stands will go back to the state DEQE with adjustments and with our (the Selectmen's Office) recommendations for changes. The Board recommended the licensing of existing marinas and piers be grandfathered. One item, he added, that has already seen a change is that a person can keep a mooring forever, as long as that person pays for it. It cannot be transferred to anyone else, even a family member. New moorings and lines given up will go into a lottery system for distribution.

WHEELS FOR LIFE BIKE-A-THON

In Tennessee there's a very special hospital. It's the first and largest of its kind -- non-sectarian, interracial, open to all and shares benefits of its work throughout the world. At St. Jude Children's Research Hospital doctors and scientists are probing the mysteries of cancers, rare blood diseases, and other children's diseases that maim and kill our children. Daily they seek better treatment, the cause, cure, and ultimately the prevention of these terrible killers.

Operating by donations only, OUR COMMUNITY CAN HELP! Please make a pledge to a biker for the May 9th Mattapoisett Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon. Bikers can register to participate at Curtis Compact. Let's help replace one TRAGIC word, cancer, with one MAGIC word, CURE!!!

American Legion

The monthly meeting of the Florence Eastman Post 280, American Legion was held at Post Headquarters on Wednesday, April 15th.

It was discussed and voted to install a new tile floor. The members will assist the Commander to lay the sub plywood floor on Saturday, May 9th, at 8:00 a.m. We can use a lot of help so we can complete it in one day. We also voted to paint the ceiling before we lay the new tile. Good painters are also needed.

The large dead maple tree in front of our Post was cut down last week. I would like to thank Ollie Smith and John DeCosta, Jr. for their help.

The flagpole will be lowered and painted as soon as weather permits.

Letter to Editor

The passage or rejection of the warrant article to fluoridate Marion town water will depend on the number of voters who are willing to play Russian Roulette with the drinking water in Marion. The fluoridation scheme involves the injection of sodium fluoride into every gallon of water pumped to the users. An excess of fluorides, from whatever source, can however produce a wide range of adverse results, for it is by no means a harmless chemical to ingest.

Dr. Charles Gordon Heyd (M.D.), past president of the American Medical Association, has said:

"I am appalled at the prospect of using water as a vehicle for drugs. Fluorine is a corrosive poison that will produce serious side effects on a long range basis. Any attempt to use water this way is deplorable."

If space permitted, there are a great many other authorities in the medical, dental, and health fields who could be quoted on the risks of mass fluoridation. Surely no reputable or responsible doctor, knowing the diversity of human body chemistry, would blindly write a mass prescription.

Many cities and towns, too numerous to list, which have tried fluoridation have rejected it. Among the long list in Massachusetts is Cambridge (home of Harvard Medical) and our near-neighbor New Bedford where fluoridation was ceased after a 12 year trial. Most European countries have rejected fluoridation. Neither Mattapoisett nor Wareham fluoridate town water nor do 4/5 of all Massachusetts towns.

Reportedly, the Marion study was made because of the teeth of children in Marion, but the eleven-page study report contains not even one line about them and no proof of need whatsoever. The entire report is devoted to promoting fluoridation and attacking those who consider fluoridation an unwise practice.

To put the subject in perspective, fluorine treatments, in cases where it is medically considered, are at best effective only for children of elementary school age when teeth are in the formative stage. As Marion elementary school children are but 8% of the town's population, any logical person would question the need to expensively fluoridate the water for the remaining 92% plus every fire hydrant, lawn sprinkler, toilet, and kitchen in Marion.

Those making the Marion study of fluoridation imply in newspaper articles and in their report that it is a benefit to those suffering with osteoporosis, but in the U. S. Pharmacopia used by all drugstores it specifically states:

"Sodium fluoride has been used to treat osteoporosis in adults. However, efficacy has not been proven and doses used have been associated with a high risk of toxicity including skelatal fluorosis, osteomalacia, widening of unmineralized osteoid seams and an increased incidence of fractures."

Certainly a local committee could have gotten this from a local drugstore and not misled the public to believe that fluorides have no adverse side effects. The entire study appears suspect not for what it does say but for what it doesn't. Should Senior citizens have to buy bottled water to avoid fluoridation problems?

Fluorine is a natural element in many foods and the P.P.M. (parts per million) in drinking water is certainly not the total we ingest. Each case is an individual one, based on diet, and other factors, but any deficiency, if there be any, can easily and inexpensively be treated in individual cases by pharmaceuticals. If children's teeth in Marion are ever found to be a problem, there are already time-tested medical, pharmaceutical, and dietary solutions available which can be safely used. The mass fluoridation of the town's entire water supply is but a means of disposing of barrels of sodium fluoride using children as pawns and exacting payment from taxpayers - both at a risk.

Even if fluoridation were harmless and beneficial, it would still create a problem, because it would add more sodium to town water which because of its lack of quality is already injected with sodium silicate and sodium hexametaphosphate to try to mask the water situation. Should the town threaten those with high blood pressure, strokes, and other circulatory diseases who try to keep sodium ingestion at a minimum?

Assuming one discounted the dangers, the unnecessary expense, the lack of documented need, and the emotional threats of fluoridation poisoning, there still remains the right of choice for each individual to live life as they choose without hurting others and not be told what they must put in their body with the water for which they pay. In 1970 the town of Marion rejected mass fluoridation and recently Selectman Betsy Parks said: "I will not support putting fluoride in the public water supply because I feel it is a personal right not to have fluoride forced on you."

In 1987 we celebrate the 200th year of the U. S. Constitution which secured the "blessings of liberty to ourselves". Surely the citizens of Marion should not be regimented as to what they shall individually ingest or how they care for their teeth. If Marion citizens are to be denied that right of choice, the mile polar voyage, a new chapter in the history of exploration under sail was written. Deborah Shapiro, an American born in 1951, and Rolf Bjelke, a Swede born in 1936, sailed Northern Light to the most northerly latitude ever reached in a private sailing craft. They then turned south to Greenland and continued via the Panama Canal to Easter Island, Pitcairn Island and Chilean Patagonia, enroute to Cape Horn.

From there they made their bold attack on Antarctica, crossing the Antarctic Circle north of Adelaide Island. The voyage was accomplished without any outside support, either physical or financial.

Beyond the accomplishment of the route, Shapiro and Bjelke also set out to document their voyage as if seen from an objective, third eye. No matter how tough it got and even while dealing with hair-raising conditions, the team's unique drive and combined strength enabled them to continue to work with their cameras and tape recorder.

In addition to the 14,000 photographs they brought back, the couple also returned with taped sounds of whales, penguins, storms and calving glaciers.

From their material, Shapiro and Bjelke have now created a 90-minute multi-projector audio-visual show. It's quality entertainnment on many levels. While capturing the enthralling beauty of the exotic places they visited and giving glimpses of the cultures, their show conveys the story of two sensitive and caring people who set out to explore the polar regions and what it takes to overcome major physical and emotional obstacles. Last but not least, this show has outstanding sailing pictures: bird's eye views of the boat under sail and ones which also include wildlife. Stunning sailing photographs are the couple's hallmark.

Shapiro and Bjelke's book was released in January 1987 by Clarkson Potter, Inc. (a division of Crown). The title is "Northern Light: One Couple's Epic Arctic-Antarctic Voyage".

QUESTION:

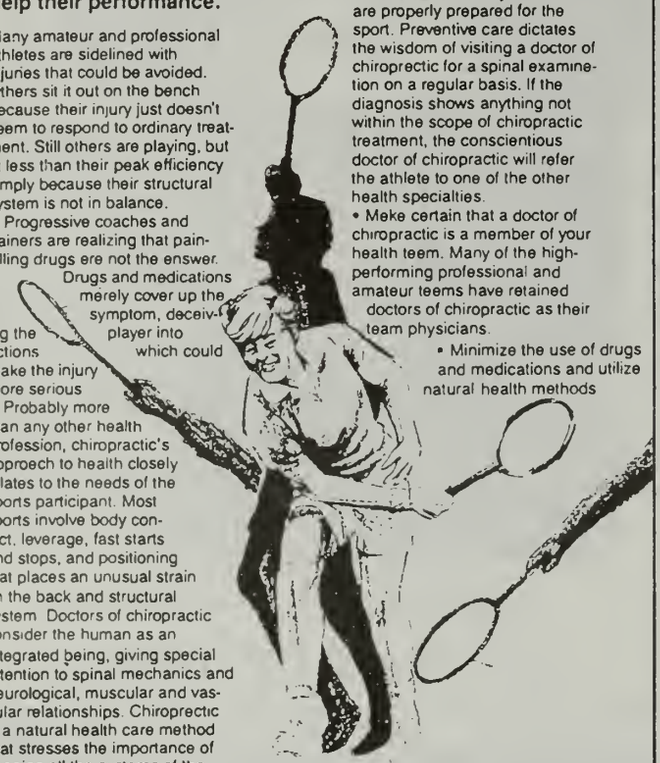
WHY SHOULD ATHLETES HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?

ANSWER: Because it can help their performance.

Many amateur and professional athletes are sidelined with injuries that could be avoided. Others sit it out on the bench because their injury just doesn't seem to respond to ordinary treatment. Still others are playing, but at less than their peak efficiency simply because their structural system is not in balance.

Progressive coaches and trainers are realizing that pain-killing drugs are not the answer. Drugs and medications merely cover up the symptom, deceiving the player into actions which could make the injury more serious.

Probably more than any other health profession, chiropractic's approach to health closely relates to the needs of the sports participant. Most sports involve body contact, leverage, fast starts and stops, and positioning that places an unusual strain on the back and structural system. Doctors of chiropractic consider the human as an integrated being, giving special attention to spinal mechanics and neurological, muscular and vascular relationships. Chiropractic is a natural health care method that stresses the importance of keeping all the systems of the body functioning efficiently, so the player enjoys peak performance, a minimum injury risk and fast recuperative powers.



Here's what you can do:

- Make certain that your athletes are properly prepared for the sport. Preventive care dictates the wisdom of visiting a doctor of chiropractic for a spinal examination on a regular basis. If the diagnosis shows anything not within the scope of chiropractic treatment, the conscientious doctor of chiropractic will refer the athlete to one of the other health specialties.
- Make certain that a doctor of chiropractic is a member of your health team. Many of the high-performing professional and amateur teams have retained doctors of chiropractic as their team physicians.
- Minimize the use of drugs and medications and utilize natural health methods

Pre-School Screening Clinic

MAILING NEXT WEEK

Next week (the week of April 27th) parents of three and four year old children in Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester will receive a mailing regarding the pre-school screening clinic being offered by the Old Rochester Regional School District.

Just as early identification of a health problem most often leads to successful treatment, so does early identification of children's potential learning problems lead to helping children achieve normal functioning. The Massachusetts Department of Education recognizes the effectiveness of early identification and intervention and therefore provides local school districts with funds, through the Early Childhood Allocation, to conduct pre-school screening clinics.

Locally, screening will be conducted during the month of May. Parents of three and four year old children (except those four year olds already evaluated in the pre-Kindergarten screening) who do not receive a letter regarding the screening clinic should contact the office of the Director of Special Needs Education at 758-2772.

An Easter cake was provided by the Culinary Arts Department. Each patient received their own Easter Basket prepared by the Health Services students which contained "gifts" from two of the school's other departments. The Cosmetology Department donated gift certificates for a haircut, shampoo and set and the Offset Printing Department provided notepaper prepared by its students. In addition, an array of handmade Easter decorations were created by Old Colony's students.

Mrs. Beverly Pusateri and Mrs. Susan Crook, Old Colony Health Services instructors, coordinated the effort by the four shop programs.

TEACHERS COMPLETE WORKSHOP

Two Old Colony instructors recently completed an intensive two-weekend course entitled Teacher Effectiveness Training (T.E.T.).

The T.E.T. course, sponsored by Fitchburg State College, centers on new effective strategies to create a positive learning environment in the teacher's classroom. The course promotes better learning conditions for students. Ms. Jana Cadieux of the Special Education Department and Mrs. Nancy Castino, an English teacher at Old Colony, voluntarily participated in the program. Upon completion, the instructors had very favorable comments about the program.

The supporting class includes Edward Haskins and Matthew Ryckebusch as Cain and Abel, along with Eric Spencer, William Coleman and George Hayden as Angels. Mr. Hayden who has won many A.R.T.A. awards is directing. This comedy is highly recommended for those who constantly say there is no moral vision in the contemporary entertainment. Theatre Ensemble of New York City will bring to New Bedford's Zeiterion Theatre on Saturday, April 25th, with The Adventures of Robin Hood. The last program in this season's "Saturday Youth Theatre Festival" will be presented twice, at 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. General admission tickets are priced at $4.00.

Their production of "Robin Hood" brings to the Zeiterion stage a sense of excitement and discovery - as well as just plain

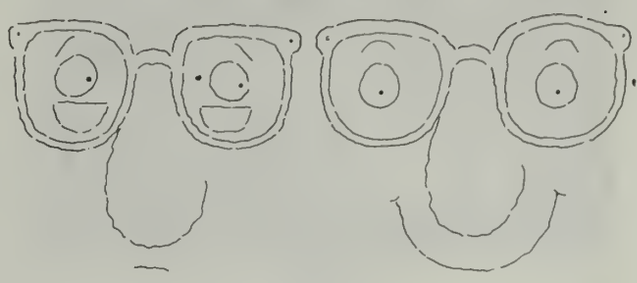
How to look 10 years younger... without joining a health spa or cruising to Tahiti.



Turn in your age-revealing bifocals for the lenses with no lines. Sola VIP lenses.

VIP™ lenses look more flattering and natural than bifocals... and they're more effective.

You get distance, close-up and mid-range corrections—with no visible lines.

You see more comfortably, too, without the "hemmed-in" or "jumpy" feeling of segments.

Stop in today for a personal demonstration.
